

Evan Witmer Joins Meridian Bank as Vice President

Malvern, Pa. (September 30, 2015) – Meridian Bank is pleased to announce that Evan Witmer has joined the Bank as Vice President, Retail Market Manager. In this position, Witmer will lead Meridian's retail banking strategy and oversee the expansion of Meridian's retail banking footprint.

A graduate of Bloomsburg University, with a double major in Business Administration/Business Management and Political Science, Witmer has more than a decade of banking experience. Recently, as Vice President at TD Bank, Witmer managed a branch conducting more than 25,000 transactions per month along with a portfolio of both commercial and consumer relationships.

"We're thrilled that Evan has joined the Meridian team to lead our retail strategy," said Meridian Bank CEO, Chris Annas. "His hybrid experience and expertise in both personal and business banking make him a tremendous asset for Meridian, and especially our customers, by offering trusted counsel and custom products and services."
