- The simulation assumes rate shifts occur upward and downward on the yield curve in even increments over the first twelve months (ramp), followed by rates held constant thereafter
- Simulation suggests that the Corporation's balance sheet is asset sensitive as of March 31, 2020.
- In its current position, the table indicates that a 100 or 200 basis point decrease in interest rates would have a negative impact on net interest income over the next 12 months.
- To mitigate risk in in the down rate scenario's management is actively lowering deposit and funding rates as well as adding or maintaining interest rate floors on floating rate loans. At March 31, approximately 65% of all floating rate loans have floors, generally > prime.

Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Measures

Tangible common equity to tangible assets

Management uses the measure tangible common equity to tangible assets to assess our capital strength. We believe that this non-GAAP financial measure is useful to investors because, by removing the impact of our preferred stock, goodwill and other intangible assets, it allows investors to more easily assess our capital adequacy. This non-GAAP financial measure should not be considered a substitute for any regulatory capital ratios and may not be comparable to other similarly titled measures used by other companies. The table below provides the non-GAAP reconciliation for our tangible common equity to tangible assets:
